GUIDELINES AND REGULATIONS

Malta Book Festival 2026

4–8 November

MFCC, Ta' Qali

The deadline to submit applications is 30th June 2026

This document is for guidelines and regulations only. Applications are only being received via ktieb.submittable.com/submit. Any applications received through other platforms, such as email, will NOT be considered by the National Book Council.

Section 1. Activities and Events Regulations

- A. Exhibitors and/or any interested participants (individuals, entities, NGOs, VOs, private organisations) are requested to provide a list of any activities or events that they intend to host during the Malta Book Festival 2026 at the venues or at their own stand (if applicable). Failure to provide these details by Tuesday 30th June will result in the refusal of the provision of event spaces by NBC and exclusion from the Festival programme.
- B. Applications for stand alone events are against a EUR 30 fee. This is only waived in the case of exhibitors who would have separately applied, and paid for, an exhibition stand at the Festival.
- C. Exhibitors with an allocated paid stand space, who wish to organise events at their own stands are free to do so. However, should they wish for these events to be featured on the Festival programme, they are to submit all relevant event details by 30th June 2026.
- D. The decision regarding the inclusion or exclusion of any proposed activity or event in the MBF26 programme will be made solely at the discretion of the National Book Council. The Council reserves the right to stipulate any terms or instructions deemed necessary for such purposes.
- E. Decisions made by the National Book Council will be final and communicated to the respective applicant no later than 7th August 2026. Additionally, the Council retains sole discretion to reschedule, adjust, or cancel the date and time of any event or activity, provided reasonable written notice is given to the relevant exhibitor and/or interested participant. In such an instance, the council shall refund the EUR 30 fee previously paid.
