English version - Book Translation Pitch Grants (guidelines and regulations)

The Malta Book Fund - Book Translation Pitch Grants (Guidelines and Regulations)

What are the Book Translation Pitch Grants?

The Malta Book Fund Book Translation Pitch Grants form part of the National Book Council's (NBC) strategy to boost the export and international dissemination of Maltese publications, and to open up Malta's literary landscape to works which have as yet not been published in translation into the Maltese language.

The initiative seeks to support literary translators in their development as advocates for international literature, by means of supporting them to pitch a sample of their work for publication.

Foreign rights agents serve as liaisons between foreign publishers and rights holders by facilitating contract signatures, ensuring that publication schedules are met and payments received according to the conditions laid down in the contract. Currently the NBC acts as a foreign rights agent for National Book Prize winning authors. As of 2022, the winners of the new Book Translation Pitch Grants can also be represented by the NBC in international book fairs.

What are the objectives of the Book Translation Pitch Grants?

The objectives of the grants are:

- to increase the visibility of Maltese creative and academic writing on international platforms;
- to help creative and academic writing in the Maltese language access international markets and audiences;
- to support Maltese translators in bringing international works of literature and research to a Maltese-reading public.

Who can apply for the Book Translation Pitch Grants?

Authors, translators and publishers living in Malta or abroad.

What do the Book Translation Pitch Grants support?

The Malta Book Fund Book Translation Pitch Grants supports applications for the translation of excerpts:

- of Maltese works published in the Maltese or English language in Malta with a Maltese ISBN into any other language;
- of works originally published in any other language into the Maltese language;
- of works originally published in any other language which are going to be pitched through an English language bridge translation.

The annual allocated budget is €5,000, for a maximum of €500 per book translation excerpt pitch application. The grants address the translation of excerpts of the following types of original works:

- literature (fiction, poetry, drama, biographies, literary nonfiction and graphic novels)
- works of research including academic and scholarly books (monographs, edited collections, critical editions, researched exhibition and gallery catalogues containing analytical material that is the result of research).

The original work needs to have been already published and identified by its ISBN.

Applicants must also ensure to identify the rights holder in their application and must include a letter of agreement from the text's author or the rights' owner (or owners) for the text being translated.

The Fund offers grants to eligible translators, authors or publishers for the translation of excerpts of up to 3,500 words of published books to and from the Maltese language.

The translation grants may support up to a maximum of €500 broken down as follows:

- a rate of €0.8-0.15 per word for the translation; and
- average rate of €0.02-0.06 per word for the editing of the translation.

The latter rates per word do not apply for translations of poetry due to the limited word count of poetry translation. In the case of poetry translations excerpts, a quote per project will be accepted for an average of up to 60 lines.

Applicants must provide official quotes for the translation and the editing of the book translation excerpt together with their translation pitch proposal.

Each application will be assessed individually on the basis of the criteria of the grant.

The eligibility and adjudication criteria for the grant are to be read carefully prior to building the proposal and applying for funds.

Any previously awarded funds are to be listed, along with the date and amount awarded, as well as any relevant details regarding the received funds.

De Minimis Regulation - Applicable State Aid Rules

The Malta Book Fund is implemented in line with provisions of Commission Regulation (EU) No 1407/2013 of 18 December 2013 on the application of Articles 107 and 108 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union to de minimis aid (OJ L 352/1 of 24 December 2013) - the de minimis Regulation. The total de minimis aid granted to any single undertaking shall not exceed €200,000 over any period of three fiscal years. To this end, applicants are being requested to provide a signed State Aid Declaration Form confirming the amount of de minimis aid received during the current and two previous fiscal years.

Rules on cumulation of aid shall be in line with Article 5 of the de minimis Regulation. Assistance under the Malta Book Fund cannot be accumulated with any other government funded scheme for the same costs. Should it become apparent that any project has been awarded separate funds for the same costs, i.e. double dipping, the proposal will be considered ineligible and/or funds will have to be reimbursed if already paid.

The Evaluation Process

Once received, applications will be firstly screened for eligibility. Applications which are not eligible in terms of the procedure stipulated by these guidelines will not be processed further and will not undergo evaluation. Eligible applications will be passed on to an independent adjudication board who will evaluate the projects.

The grants will be awarded to successful applicants following a competitive adjudication process according to pre established adjudication criteria.

Each criterion is allocated a specific number of marks. In order to be considered for funding, projects have to obtain a minimum of 60 marks.

Nevertheless, the evaluation session and funding decisions depend on the level of competition and on the availability of the funds. Obtaining 60 marks or more does not automatically mean that funding will be awarded.

The order of classification of the winning projects, according to the marks allocated by the evaluators, will be published online within 8 (eight) weeks from the application deadline. Only the names of the successful beneficiaries and their projects will be published.

The adjudication board may require clarifications from the applicant during the evaluation sessions; however, this does not guarantee that funds will be awarded to the project. All correspondence will be sent by the NBC's Fund Administrator.

Eligibility Criteria

Applications are first screened in terms of eligibility and are to be complete and include: the book translation pitch, a budget breakdown, and the estimated timeframe.

Book Translation Pitch

As part of the application, the applicant must write a book translation pitch not exceeding 1,000 words, which should include a description of its cultural value for the Maltese publishing market or its literary export value, as well as include documentation related to the research carried out for the identification of the foreign rights holder, and any potential publishers to which the translation excerpt and book could be pitched.

The original work needs to have been already published and identified by its ISBN.

Applicants must also ensure to identify the rights holder in their application and must include a letter of agreement from the text's author or the rights' owner (or owners) for the text being translated.

Translation of coffee-table books, musical scores and books based solely on imagery or photography are excluded from the scheme.

The pitch should also explain why the book should be translated and thus requires funding. The pitch letter (no more than 1,000 words) should include:

- An Advanced Information Sheet or AI (presentation of the book, press reviews, purpose of the book (non-fiction) or plot details (fiction) and the main points or topics of the book in short paragraphs, information about the author (previous books, sales history, prizes, films based on their novels etc.);
- How you became interested in translating the specific book: an explanation as to why you are so enthusiastic about the book and why you think it is appropriate for that particular publisher (reference to other titles in their list) and/or market
- A copy of the sample chapter/excerpt (around 3,500 words) in the original language (source text) which will be translated if the funds are granted;
- Facts and figures: length, number of words/pages. Sales figures/bestseller placings in the country of publication and in translation in other countries (which you can obtain from the original publisher);
- Your own résumé (relevant translating experience and credentials of the translator, if any);
- Factors affecting the publisher's decision: how the book was received in its source publishing market and why it is suitable for the chosen target market; length; cost of translation of the whole book;
- BONUS INFO: Is the author alive, 'promotable', available for launch? Is the book part of a series? Is the country of origin fashionable? Can the editor read the language or will s/he need to rely on an outside reader/bridge translation? Links to social media pages or author sites. Any other marketing material to be used to make the title in question as desirable as possible for foreign publishers
- Can you or who represents you fight for and win this book in an editorial meeting?
- Research outcome performed to identify foreign rights holder of the book.

Budget breakdown

The application should include a justification of the funding to be provided in budget breakdown of the project in order to support the proposal. At application stage, copies of any relevant quotations that can give an indication of estimated costs (see downloadable budget breakdown table template - APP 3), with proof of official quotes are to be provided. Official documentation must be submitted in support of the budget breakdown of the project costs. These can be broken down as follows:

- translation rates/translator/s' fees;
- proofreading/editing.

Timeframes

The delivery date for each winning translation pitch will be discussed with the NBC upon the release of the winners' list and established within the beneficiaries contract.

An estimated completion date of the translation should be mentioned in the application and should not exceed 6 months from the date indicated in the beneficiary's contract.

Ineligible projects

Applications for book translation pitch grants in the following areas are ineligible for funding:

- textbooks, instruction manuals;
- yearbooks;

- works whose primary objective is party propaganda;
- coffee-table books, musical scores and books based solely on imagery or photography;
- modules or translation work within a taught course;
- expenses already covered by public cultural organisations, or another public funding programme managed or co-managed by the NBC, or any other public agency, government department or Ministry;
- retrospective costs;
- incomplete applications (please refer to documents checklist below).

Ineligible proposals in terms of the eligibility criteria listed above shall not be processed further and shall not undergo evaluation.

Adjudication Criteria

Each eligible application is evaluated according to the adjudication criteria established in these guidelines and regulations. The criteria cater for as many different initiatives as possible, giving a chance to compete to all projects that prove to be of cultural value, albeit not commercially viable, based on the evaluation of the adjudication board.

- ➔ The adjudication board will base judgment on the strength and completeness of each application.
- ➔ The adjudicating board may discriminate against applications so as to set funding targets for grants according to certain priorities that the adjudication board deems to be of importance in the current circumstances of the book market.
- ➔ The adjudication board's decision is final and non-contestable.
- ➔ Applicants may submit more than one application in each and every fund strand, however only one of the applications will be funded within that strand.
- ➔ Only book translation pitches with a complete pitch process in place will be considered eligible.

Rules and regulations apply to this grant.

Adjudicators will evaluate applications on the basis of the following criteria to reach a final assessment. The book translation pitch should elaborate on each of the three criteria, as outlined below:

1. Quality and completeness of the pitch
2. Market engagement
3. Management and feasibility

1. Quality of the proposed project – TOTAL: 40 MARKS

The strength of the translator's professional record, the quality of the pitch provided (35 marks).

Automatic points will be granted as follows:

* if the pitch also includes an AI of the book to be pitched for translation (5 marks)

2. Market engagement – TOTAL: 40 MARKS

Details of the plan for publication, choice of the specific publisher, thorough research to identify the foreign rights holder. This criterion considers the level of detail and contacts (author, publisher, rights holder) already established supported with relevant documentation. (30 marks)

Relevance of the work to be translated to the target publishing market. This criterion requires knowledge of the market targeted and an explanation as to why that specific work is targeting the selected market. (10 marks)

3. Management and feasibility – TOTAL: 20 MARKS

Clarity of the application and the level of detail provided and thoroughness of the pitch (a CV/ Portfolio of the translator, the pitch and an excerpt of the work to be translated should be submitted with the application) (10 marks)

The applicant's ability to manage the project (including timeframes and financial management) responsibly and successfully. (10 marks)

Preference is given to:

- Applications which provide documentation of reasonable research into the target publishing market research, including the suggestion of a potential publisher/literary agents to which the book could be eventually pitched.
- Applications which are supported by third-parties via a legitimate written reference.
- Applications with realistic budgets and backed by official quotes.

Project implementation and monitoring

Successful applicants will be requested to sign a contract specifying the conditions of the fund. When accepting the grant, applicants accept that their name, the project title and the amount awarded can be published by the NBC.

50% (fifty per cent) of the total amount allocated by the adjudication board to a specific project will be awarded upon signing of the grant beneficiaries contract. The other 50% (fifty per cent) will be released following approval by the NBC of the final report, and submission and tallying of final invoices and receipts within the budget breakdown.

The Fund beneficiaries must use the NBC's logo on all related material and specify that the project was supported by the Malta Book Fund – in all marketing, PR and printed material. The grant received must be used solely for the purpose for which it was awarded, in line with the submitted proposal and the contract.

Beneficiaries must notify the NBC immediately if changes affecting the nature of the project take place during implementation. Changes cannot be implemented unless approval is received. The NBC reserves the right to revise or withhold the final payment if the change in the project is not considered to be in line with the initial proposal, or if the Council is not informed of the changes within a reasonable time.

Reporting

Upon completion of the translation excerpt, applicants will be required to submit a detailed report (see APP 4) including invoices and receipts and highlighting the work carried out and the achievements of the project upon its conclusion, by not later than six (6) months after signing the fund beneficiary contract.

Together with the report, beneficiaries must present the translation excerpt via email.

The NBC retains the right to make use of submitted project material.

The information provided will be evaluated by the NBC fund administrators and, if this information is satisfactory, then the final 50% of the amount allocated by the fund will be granted. The amount will be adjusted based on the invoices and receipts received.

The NBC reserves the right to revise the final payment if the project was not delivered as indicated in the application form.

Likewise, the NBC retains the right to recover funds in case these are not being used and/or are misused and/or are not used according to the submitted proposal and budget.

Use of the sample translation

The NBC has the right to use the sample translation for literature promotion purposes and, in collaboration with the applicant, to pitch the translation to publishers at foreign book fairs. The translators may use their translation in parallel, subject to the agreement of the foreign rights' holder.

Translation Pitch

In short, a book pitch (or proposal) should capture what the book is about and why people should be interested in reading it. You can pitch an agent in person at a meeting or conference, but a pitch can also be written out in the form of a query letter.

A book translation pitch is slightly different in that its interlocutor is the foreign rights agent or literary agent or foreign publisher. In general, pitches should be brief.

There's one other major difference between pitching a new book and a book in translation: how much of the book/translation you need to have written in advance and what type of material the pitch pack should include.

Your translation pitch letter for the purposes of this fund application (no more than 1,000 words) should include:

- An Advanced Information Sheet or AI (presentation of the book, press reviews, information on the author, purpose of the book (non-fiction) or plot details (fiction) and the main points or topics of the book in short paragraphs, information about the author (previous books, sales history, prizes, films based on their novels etc.);
- How you became interested in translating the specific book: an explanation as to why you are so enthusiastic about the book and why you think it is appropriate for that particular publisher (reference to other titles in their list) and/or market
- A copy of the sample chapter/excerpt (around 3,500 words) in the original language (source text) which will be translated if the funds are granted;
- Facts and figures: length, number of words/pages. Sales figures/bestseller placings in the country of publication and in translation in other countries (which you can obtain from the original publisher);
- Your own résumé (relevant translating experience and credentials of the translator, if any);
- Factors affecting the publisher's decision: how the book was received in its source publishing market and why it is suitable for the chosen target market; length; cost of translation of the whole book;
- BONUS INFO: Is the author alive, 'promotable', available for launch? Is the book part of a series? Is the country of origin fashionable? Can the editor read the language or will s/he need to rely on an outside reader/bridge translation? Links to social media pages or author sites. Any other marketing material to be used to make the title in question as desirable as possible for foreign publishers

- Can you or who represents you fight for and win this book in an editorial meeting?
- Research outcome performed to identify foreign rights holder of the book.
