DOREEN MICALLEF NATIONAL POETRY CONTESTS 2024

Regulations

We recommend that all participants read the contest regulations carefully before submitting their application. You can write to us at andrew.ricca@ktieb.org.mt if you have any questions.

General Rules

1. Participants are invited to submit up to one poem in Maltese, which should not be longer than thirty-six (36) verses.
2. The poem should only be signed with a pseudonym (nom de plume).
3. The closing date of the contest is midday, 22 July 2024.
4. As of this edition, entries for this contest should be submitted exclusively through the online application form by the closing date of the contest.
5. An automatic confirmation email will be sent to applicants once they submit their application via the online application form on the National Book Council website.
6. All submissions are evaluated anonymously by an adjudication panel and its decision is final. The jury will be composed of three members appointed by the National Book Council.
7. Employees of the National Book Council may not participate.
8. Any participant who fails to comply with any of these regulations will be disqualified immediately.

The poems

9. All submissions are evaluated anonymously and the poet's name should not appear anywhere on the poem.
10. All poems should have a title and should not exceed thirty-six (36) verses (excluding the title). Poems can be on any subject.
11. The poems should be the original work of the participant.
12. The work submitted must be original and have never been published in books, magazines, journals, websites, on social media, or was among the winners of other competitions before May 14, 2024.

The winners

13. The winners will be announced at an awards ceremony during the 2024 Malta Book Festival.
14. The poems which rank in the top three will be awarded. The author of the first poem will receive a prize of €1,000. The authors of poems placing in second and third place will receive prizes of €500 and €200 respectively. Prizes may not be awarded if the jury deems that the expected level has not been reached.
15. The copyright of each poem remains with the author, however, by participating in the contest, the authors of the winning poems are giving the National Book Council the right to publish and / or broadcast in other media their winning poem.
